Eintracht Frankfurt

Introduction

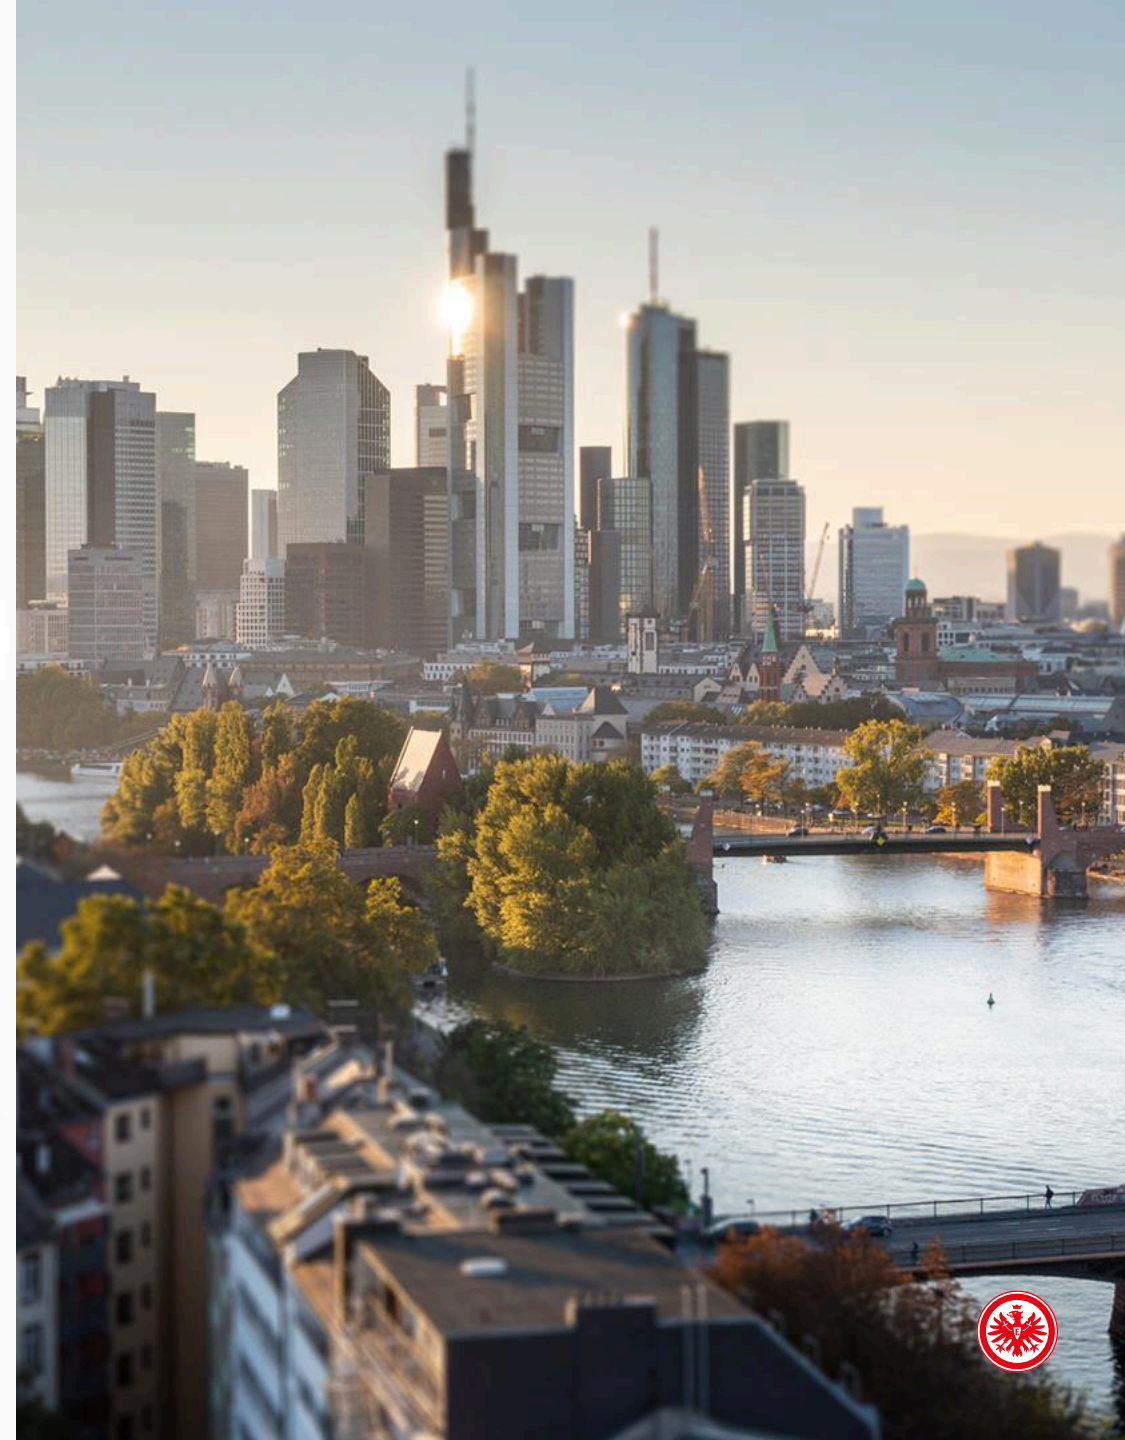

Frankfurt Rhine-Main Region

the second-largest metropolitan region in Germany

Cosmopolitan, versatile and at the same time also the gateway to the largest economy in Europe

- 5.8 million inhabitants in the Rhine-Main region, of whom around 750,000 live in the city of Frankfurt am Main¹.
- With over 70.6 million passengers (in 2019), Frankfurt Airport³ is one of the busiest in Europe.
- No other German city is home to more nationalities. More than 180 of the world's 197 nations are at home in multicultural Frankfurt⁵.
- More than 400,000 companies keep the economic engine of the metropolitan region running, and 2.2 million employees go about their daily work in Europe's leading business location⁶.
